

USS Lexington & Texas State Aquarium Campout

- What: Tour the Bob Bullock Texas State History Museum in Austin, spend the night at the Texas State Aquarium – behind the scenes tour and special dive show, and spend the night on the USS Lexington aircraft carrier – tour of ship, movie, learn history, ghost stories, and bunk in the crew quarters.
- When: Saturday, January 16 to Monday, January 18, 2016. Monday is Martin Luther King Holiday.
- Where: Austin, Texas and then on to Corpus Christi, Texas.
- Transportation: Travel by 2 chartered buses equipped with DVD player. Depart from east side of BTBF on Saturday at 8:00 a.m. Return back to east side of BTBF on Monday at 5:30 p.m.
- Bring: Sack lunch, snack and drink, pillow, sleeping bag, sleeping clothes, toiletries, towel, flashlight, light jacket and rain gear. The first night, we will sleep inside the Texas State Aquarium on the floor. On the Lexington, we will be in a large sleeping compartment in sleeping berths (with mattresses) and restrooms nearby. Wear your uniform in transit and your troop T-shirt during the day. Bring some money for snacks, games and souvenirs. No food may be brought into the aquarium or on the ship. You may bring small electronic devices to use on bus. Volume must be turned off or use headphones. Your name must be clearly visible on the device and headphones. They will be taken up and stored away while off the bus – no electronics are allowed on the ship. All meals will be provided.
- Deadline: First come, first served. We have spots for 65 Scouts and 15 adults. Deadline for turning in your check and registration form is Monday, November 9, 2015. We must have 1 adult for every 5 scouts. Once the 80 spots are filled, we will then start a wait list.
- Emergency: Harold Sickler’s cell 214-455-1091, USS Lexington telephone is 1-800-523-9539
- Cost: $200.00 and includes meals, transportation, entrance and program fees, tour fees & patches. Money in your scout account may be used to apply to the cost of this campout – please ask, if interested.
